The normal to Dec. 1 is 7.05 in.
The normal to Jan. 1 is 13.99 inches.

U. S. Route 50 is open to travel across the Echo summit and chains are required on all cars making the trip. Snow depth at 7 o'clock this morning was seventeen inches.

This is according to the State Division of Highways office at Smith Flat, which reported that the "snow line" was in the vicinity of Twin Bridges at that hour.

Rains continued in the lower levels and in the period from 4:30 o'- clock Tuesday afternoon until 2 o'- clock Wednesday afternoon, Placerville recorded a total of 1.40 inches of rain to raise the total for the storm to 2.83 inches, and for the season to 5.99 inches.

Although the storm during the night was accompanied by winds approaching gale force, there was no report of serious damage in the county from this source, and road officials reported no interference with highway traffic in the county.

Pacific Ranger Station reported a total of three and one-half inches of rainfall for the storm since Sunday night with one inch of rain recorded on Wednesday morning.

Death Claims Mother, Son

Services Held Thursday At Ione For Two In Family Of Mrs. R. S. Swift, Of Shingle

Last rites were held at the cemetery in Ione on Thursday afternoon of last week for Mrs. Ella May Fairchild and her son, Floyd Charles Fairchild, who were mother and brother of Mrs. R. S. Swift, of Shingle Springs.

Mrs. Fairchild's death followed a week's illness at her home near Lodi and came only a few hours after the passing of her son. She passed away without knowing of his critical illness or death.

Mrs. Fairchild was a member of an old pioneer family. Her father, Silas Tubbs, operated a freight line in the days of the gold rush between what is now Placerville and Sacramento. She was born near Ione, April 28, 1870 and spent her early life there and was married at that place on November 27, 1889.

The family moved to Lodi in 1912 and a year ago observed their golden wedding anniversary. A devoted mother, Mrs. Fairchild made for her husband and seven children a home of peace, love and understanding.

The son, Floyd Charles Fairchild, was born in Ione 42 years ago and attended school there and at Lodi and at the University of California.
He was a World War Veteran and a member of Morning Star Lodge of Masons. He had been employed by the state in fruit and vegetable inspection. His wife and four children survive.

Mrs. Fairchild, who was a member of the Eastern Star chapter at Woodbridge, is survived by her husband and by one brother, James Tubbs, of Ione, and by the following children, J. H. Fairchild, of Modesto; Mrs. R. S. Swift, of Shingle; Mrs. Lula Lawrence, of Miss Lee Fairchild, of San Francisco; Robert Fairchild, of Modesto, and Miss Ora Fairchild.

CHILDREN OF COUNTY GUESTS AT EAGLES' PARTY MONDAY

"Yodeling Johnny," of Radio Fame, Will Share Honors With Santa Claus In Program Opening At 2 O'Clock At Empire Theater

Oh Boy! It's gonna be a Merry Christmas!

Placerville Eagles are going to be hosts again to the little children of the county at their annual Christmas Party on Monday afternoon at the Empire Theater. And everything starts at 2 o'clock.

Santa Claus is going to be there, as usual, and with him will be "Yodeling Johnny," of Sacramento Valley radio fame.

It's going to be another great party.

Now, remember, it's for the little children. The bigger boys and girls have, perhaps, attended similar parties in other years and so they know all about it and it is hoped they will stand back and at least wait until the little children have found seats.

Doors of the theater open at one o'clock and the party begins at two o'clock. There will be movies, "Yo-deling Johnny," and Santa Claus, with a gift for all of his little friends. This is a special arrangement made by the Eagles as a result of their anniversary dance held in October.

Transportation problems this year are being handled through the teachers and parents of children but the Eagles will provide transportation, says Chairman George Yaeger, in instances where no other arrangements can be made.

The aerie drill team, in uniform, will serve as ushers and chaperones for the children during the party, and everything is "all set" for the usual big time.

Greeks Continue Advance Despite Blizzards And Bitter Cold

By JOE ALEX MORRIS
U. P. Foreign News Editor

Great Britain battled to hold the initiative against Axis forces in the Libyan desert and the blizzard-wrapped Albanian mountains today awaiting hopefully the results of Adolf Hitler's intervention in the French cabinet crisis and President Roosevelt's plan for lending war materials to Britain.

On the Albanian front, the Greeks were facing blizzards, deep snow and extreme cold in addition to increasingly stubborn resistance by reinforced Italian armies but one report reaching the Yugoslav frontier said that the important inland town of Kilsura, which Athens reported in flames under Greek artillery fire, had been captured.

On the Libyan front, the British had circled and sent some forces on past the Fascist base of Bardia on the Mediterranean coast and were hammering with artillery, infantry, warships and airplanes at the base itself.

In East Africa, there were hints that the British might be prepared to start an important offensive against Ethiopia.

British airplanes again bombed southwestern Germany, centering on the war industries in the Mannheim region, where additional fires were started. Pilots reported that fires started in Monday's raids were still burning in that zone. The RAF also resumed heavy attacks on the German invasion ports in occupied France.

In France, the power of the Nazis was felt more acutely than ever before as a result of the dismissal of Pierre Laval as vice premier after he had cooperated with the Nazi "new order" in Europe.

Laval was released as a result of the hurried visit of Otto Abetz, representative of Hitler, to Vichy and the ousted vice premier returned with Abetz to Paris, where it was hinted he might have an important role in the future. For the present, however, he was said to be in Paris as a private citizen.

BANK EMPLOYEES HAVE CHRISTMAS PARTY TUESDAY NIGHT

The staff of the Placerville Branch of the Bank of America met Tuesday night at the Blue Bell Coffee Shop for a dinner and Christmas party.

The evening included a mock Christmas tree at which the guests exchanged toys which later were laid aside to be turned over to the Lions Club committee for use in the distribution of Christmas baskets in the community. Guy E. Wentworth was Santa Claus, assisted by Agnes Schiff. Ray Ellis was master of ceremonies for the evening.

Elsie Allendale has brought suit for divorce from Fred Allendale, charging cruelty. The complaint states the pair wed September 28, 1934 an separated December 2, they have three children whose custody plaintiff asks, with an award of $50 per month for their support.

2 STUDENT NURSES FINISH PROBATIONARY PERIOD AND GET CAPS

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Morris, Mrs.
Henry S. Lyon and Mr. and Mrs.
Glen D. Stevens left Wednesday morning for San Francisco to attend exercises at the Children's Hospital at which Jane Lyon and Dorothy Morris were to receive their caps as student nurses.

As far as the two trainees are concerned, the exercises mark the close of their probationary period and their acceptance for training as having the qualifications necessary for the profession.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris and Mrs.
Lyon are to return this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will spend several days in the Bay District. District Attorney Henry S. Lyon was unable to attend the exercises, having a trial in progress in Superior Court.

Bob Combellack is home from his studies at Stockton Junior College.

PEAR INDUSTRY MUST UNITE, SAYS BROCK

Farm Economic Conference Told Producers, Shippers Should Be Co-Operative

STOCKTON, (AP)—The status of California agriculture under marketing acts, and the financial position of the industry were discussed today by representatives of peach, wine, walnut and pear industries at the California Agricultural Economic conference.

J. W. Tapp, vice president of the Bank of America saw an improved financial position for the farmer due principally to increased domestic demands, the circumstances of unseasonal weather in competitive states, and the use of surplus control and price supporting programs under state and federal law.

The "inventory position" of the farmer, he said, showed the carryover of canned fruits and of tree nuts to be in generally healthy condition, but the prospect for dried fruits to be "not so promising."

Cotton and dried fruits, citrus fruits and temporarily dried beans and turkeys have over-extended inventory positions because of the loss of export markets.

California, producing nearly one-third of the nation's pears, has suffered greatly because other sections have not cooperated in the movement to regulate distribution of the crops; because production has increased nearly 100 per cent; because export markets have been cut off and because Argentina has begun to export pears heavily. A. A. Brock, manager of the Placerville Fruit Growers Association declared.

He declared that unless all producers and shippers are willing to cooperate on a basis which will keep them informed, which will put a fair quality of pears on the market and which will avoid other states overloading the markets when one of the group is attempting to improve conditions, "it would appear we have a hard task ahead of us in attempting to improve markets and raise prices by regulating only a small group producing a single variety."

Masons Install On January 6th

Meeting Will Follow

Installation of officers recently elected and appointed for El Dorado Lodge No. 26, F. & A. M., for the new year, will take place on Monday evening, January 6th at the Masonic temple. The meeting will follow a 6:30 o'clock dinner.

The new officers are: Frederick Dorman, succeeding John Simpson as worshipful master; Ellsworth Williard, senior warden; John H. Palmer, junior warden; Don H. Goodrich, treasurer; T. F. Lewis, secretary; and

Bert Pierroz, senior deacon; James Franklin, junior deacon; Joe G.
Hearn, senior steward; Rolon Dunkum, junior steward; Harold Duden, chaplain; Joseph G. Leonard, marshall; L. A. Reeg, tiler; and A. S.
Fox, organist.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB HAS XMAS PARTY; WHIST PLANS CANCELLED

Members of the Shakespeare Club made their program meeting Tuesday a Christmas party at the clubhouse with Mrs. Harriett Amstalden as chairman. Mrs. James B.
Blair gave an appropriate reading from Charles Dickens and the club sang Christmas carols. Following the program coffee and fruit cake were served. The clubhouse was appropriately decorated in the Christmas colors and greenery.

Toy gifts brought by the members were turned over to a committee of which Mrs. Helen Pierroz is chairman, to be given to the committee in charge of Christmas basket distribution in the community.

There were several announcements:

The card party previously scheduled for December 31 has been cancelled.

The choral section has abandoned its December 24 meeting and will meet next on January 7.

This also is the date for the regular January business meeting of the club.

FESTIVAL PROGRAM

"Why The Chimes Rang" Feature Playlet Of
High School Exercises

The program for the Christmas Festival, to be presented Thursday afternoon and again Thursday evening at the high school auditorium, will open with a group of four numbers by the orchestra led by Charles W. Ball.

These are a Christmas fantasy, arranged by E. H. Berg; "Liebes-lied," by Beethoven; "Cantique De Noel," by G. H. Saunders, featuring Robert Zueger as soloist; and "Lord of Glory," by Bach.

Elisabeth Wilder will give the prologue following which the glee club and choir in processional will sing the traditional Christmas hymn, "Oh Come, All Ye Faithful."

Choral offerings will include "Gesu Bambino," by the glee club; "No Candle Was There and No Fire," by the girls' choir; "Cherubim Song" by the capella choir, and a Christmas medley, by the glee club and choir. Mrs. M. E. Wright and Miss Margaret Morehouse are accompanists.

The concluding number of the program will be the Christmas play, "Why The Chimes Rang," by Elizabeth A. McPadden, presented under the direction of Thomas Flynn.
The play is based on the story of the same name by Raymond Mac-Donald Alden.

The scene is the interior of a wood-chopper's cabin; the time, dusk of a day long, long ago.

In the cast are Donald Mitchell, Martin Baumhoff, Robert A. H.
Sidney Price, William Liddicoet, George Faugstad, Walter Dondoro, Marilyn Wiley, William Dillinger, Georgia Crystal, Gilbert Cook and Margaret Brown. Members of the choir, assisted by Maxine Miller at the organ and Lavonne Noland at the chimes, will assist in the presentation of the play.

The free will offering at each presentation will be given to the El Dorado County Chapter of the Red Cross.

Scouts Present Xmas Fete

Diamond Springs Troop
Announces Honor Court,
Program Friday Night

Scoutmaster Charles Doe and the members of Troop 85 of Boy Scouters at Diamond Springs, will combine a Court of Honor with a Christmas program at the Diamond Springs school on Friday night.

The public is welcome to attend.
The program will open with a musical number followed by the pledge of allegiance to the Flag and the Court of Honor. Then will follow a playlet, "A Bright Starry Night," in which Sandy Price, H.
Bennett, Joe Lawson, Bill Gust, Darrell Meyer and Jack Sawyer will take part.

The next stunt is billed as "A Little Fun" and this will be followed by "The Music Merit Badge," in which Tom Lawson and Doc Scheiler will take part, and the next stunt is billed as "A Lot of Fun."

"Scouting Comes To Town" will then be presented by Neil Cameron, Verne Odlin, Fritz Campbell and Tom Liddicoet, and this will be followed by "A Merry Christmas."

P. T. A. MEETS THURSDAY; CHORUS WILL SING CHRISTMAS SONGS

December meeting of the Placerville Grammar School Parent-Teacher Association will be held on Thursday at 2:30 o'clock at the school building.

According to Mrs. B. E. Larson, president, there will be a short business meeting after which there will be a program featuring Christmas songs by a chorus under the direction of Mrs. Grace Steen.

Many of the members of the chorus are members of the choirs in churches of the community and for this reason the chorus has been named the "Chorus of Faiths."

Refreshments and a social hour will follow the meeting.

Francis Stoddard, who fled the Preston School of Industry at Ione recently, was taken into custody Tuesday night by city police while driving a car registered to Earl Colburn, of Plymouth.

Stoddard was delivered to Preston officers who called for him and Colburn came from Plymouth to claim his car.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL TO BE AT AT HIGH SCHOOL THURSDAY AFTERNOON AND EVENING

Matinee Performance Will Attract Children Although Parents Are Welcome To Attend; All Are Welcome At Evening Presentation

The annual Christmas Festival at the high school, which the institution presents each year as a contribution to the spirit of Christmas in the community, will be given Thursday at the high school auditorium.

A departure from the usual schedule, arranged because of the increasingly large attendance in recent years, is the announcement of a matinee presentation.

The Festival will be given at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and again at eight o'clock in the evening.

It is hoped that the afternoon presentation will provide the opportunity for many children to see the Festival, particularly the smaller children whose restlessness might disturb the evening program.
All parents and all friends of the school are welcome to attend the matinee.

The general public is also welcome to attend the evening performance.

There are no reserved seats at any time and no admission is charged.
This is the high school's Christmas "gift" to the community.

The Christmas Festival this year is again under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Gladys Veerkamp, assisted by a faculty committee including Thomas Flynn, dramatics; Miss Beatrice Ramm, vocal music; Charles W. Ball, orchestra; H. N.
T. Schultz, stage and lighting; Syl-vio Ronzone, scenery; C. Belle Swansborough, art; Eveline Olsen, home making, and Gwenmar Powell, programs.

The participation of the various departments of the school under this leadership makes the Christmas Festival an all-school event, the one function of the school year in which all branches of the school combine.

Lions Club Has Xmas Party

Summit School Children Entertain; Meeting For December 24 Cancelled

Placerville Lions had their Christmas Party at their meeting Tuesday of this week and voted to suspend the club meeting for December 24, and meet again, for the last time this year, on Tuesday, December 31.

Cancellation of the meeting for next week was voted in view of the circumstances that many members of the club will be unable to attend the meeting on the day before Christmas.

The club held its Christmas program at the Tuesday meeting and there was a Christmas tree and special entertainment was offered by the ten pupils of the Summit school under the direction of their teacher, Miss Reba Sinclair. The children were heard in tonnetto numbers, other instrumental numbers and songs.

Mrs. A. V. Smithson, with piano accompaniment by Miss Maxine Miller, favored the club with vocal

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE AT MIDNIGHT FOR EPISCOPAL CHURCH

The Ven. Rex A. Barron, rector of the Church of Our Saviour, announces plans for a Christmas eve service at the church on Tuesday evening, December 24, beginning at 11:30 o'clock.

There will be special music by the vested choir of the church and the singing of favorite Christmas carols.

This will be followed by the celebration of the Holy Communion.
The public is welcome to attend this sacred observance of the Christmas season.

Catholic Ladies' Whist Party Wednesday Night

Whist players are again reminded that the party usually given on the third Thursday of the month by the ladies of St. Patrick's Church, at the parish hall, has been moved ahead for this month and will be given tonight, Wednesday, at the parish hall.

The change in date was made to avoid a conflict with the traditional Christmas Festival at the high school, which will take place Thursday evening.

Nuoca "Cake and Cookie Carnival" Brings Cookie Jar Into Its Own

FOREVER and a day, cookies have been the favorite snack of young and old alike—and a well-known "Cookie Jar" has long been veritably an American institution.

All too frequently, however, keeping Ye Cookie Jar filled against ravenous demands is not so simple as it might seem. But with the help of the Nuoca "Cake and Cookie Carnival" now being featured by leading merchants throughout the town there's every reason why the Cookie Jar should soon be brimming with a legion of tasty morsels.

Cookies like those featured in the Carnival are easy to make, surprisingly economical and so delicious. The creamy shortening with that "spread for bread" flavor makes them so. Here are a few sample recipes. Your favorite food merchant is featuring the ingredients this week.

Old-Fashioned Sugar Cookies
1 cup New Nuoca 4 teaspoons baking powder 1 cup sugar 1/2 teaspoon salt 1 egg 1 tablespoon milk 1/2 cups sifted 1/2 teaspoon vanilla all-purpose flour 1/2 teaspoon lemon extract Cream Nuoca thoroughly. Add sugar gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat thoroughly. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt and sift together three times. Add flour mixture and mix thoroughly. Chill. Turn on floured board; roll very thin, cut into fancy shapes with floured cutter. Decorate tops of cookies with sugar, colored candies, finely powdered walnuts, almonds, whole blanched almonds and raisins. Bake on well Nuoca-d cookie sheets, or on bottom of inverted pans in a moderately hot oven (375° F.) ten minutes, or until done. Watch that they do not burn! Yields: approximately 10 dozen 3-inch cookies.

Date and Nut Cookies
1/2 cup New Nuoca 1/2 teaspoon soda 2 cups brown sugar 1 teaspoon salt 2 eggs 1 cup nuts, chopped 3/4 cups sifted flour 1 cup pitted 2 teaspoons baking powder 1/2 cup dates, chopped 1/2 teaspoon vanilla 1 teaspoon vanilla
Cream Nuoca thoroughly. Add sugar gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, soda and salt and sift together three times. Work into creamed mixture. Add flavoring, nuts and dates. Form dough into rolls two inches in diameter. Wrap in waxed paper and chill. Slice 1/4 inch thick and bake on Nuoca-d cookie sheet in a moderately hot oven (375° F.) 8 to 10 minutes, or until done. Yields: 10 dozen 2-inch cookies.

Cold Left-Over Turkey can be turned into exciting fresh hot dishes says Dorothy Greig

THE turkey is in full glory on the first day, appearing in all his golden succulence and tenderness as a whole roasted bird.

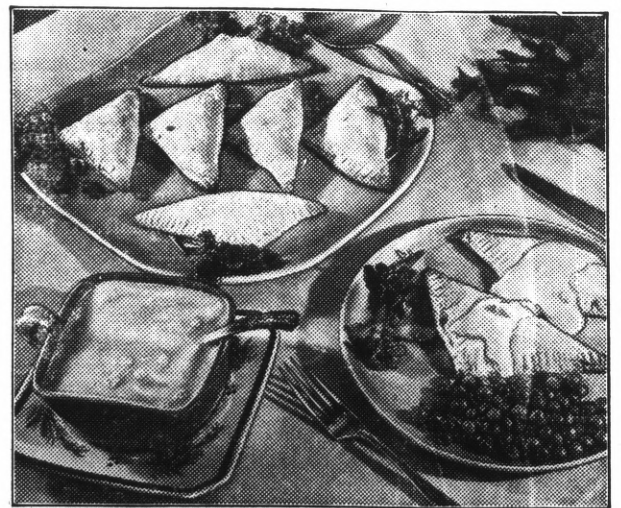

The second day he does nobly, too, as a cold platter filled with legs and wings and slices of breast meat around a mound of savory dressing. But by the third and fourth days, while there's lots of him left, pretty much reduced to scraps. That's where a big change takes place. He returns to the family table all dressed up as fresh hot dishes and we rejoice and enjoy him with renewed zest.

Who likes flaky pastry turnovers? Everybody... and all the more so when the filling is turkey and they are served with a sauce that gives them extra flavor:

baking tray and bake in a hot oven (450°) for 15 minutes. Makes 8 turnovers.

Mushroom-Pea Sauce
1/2 cup condensed cream of mushroom soup 1/2 cup condensed pea soup 1/2 cup milk

Combine soups. Then add milk and heat, but do not boil. Serve over the "Hot Turkey Turnovers". Turkey can reappear as a creamy la king dish, too, to the deep contentment of all those who are served therewith:

Turkey Turnovers with Mushroom-Pea Sauce present leftover turkey as a hot fresh dish.

Hot Turkey Turnovers with Mushroom-Pea Sauce 2 cups cooked turkey, chopped
Combine turkey with soup and mix well.
Pastry for Turnovers: Sift 3 cups flour, add 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 cup shortening. Cut in shortening, then add ice water mixing with a fork until the dough holds together. Chill thoroughly. Roll out pastry on floured board and cut into 4 1/2 inch squares. Put a spoonful of turkey mixture on each square, moisten edges of pastry and fold corners, pressing edges together with a fork. Put on a greased

Turkey a la King
1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup 1/2 cup top milk
1 cup turkey
1/2 cup pimiento (cut in strips 1/4 inch wide by 1 inch long) 1 egg yolk
Cut the turkey into pieces about 1/2 inch square.
Stir the cream of mushroom soup well. Then add 1/2 cup of top milk. Heat and add the turkey and strips of pimiento. Then add egg yolk which has been diluted with some of the hot sauce. Heat, but do not boil. Serve on toast, in patty shells or with hot buttered rice. Serves 3-4.

FATHERS AND SONS DINNER CHAIRMANSHIP GIVEN DR. LESTER RANTZ

Dr. Lester B. Rantz was appointed general chairman of arrangements on Tuesday night for the annual fathers and sons dinner, scheduled to be held on Thursday evening, February 13th.

The appointment was announced by W. T. Henderson, chairman of the district Boy Scout committee, at the regular committee meeting held at the War Veterans' Memorial Building.

Definite announcement concerning the time and place of the dinner, held successfully last year at the Shakespeare Clubhouse, and details of the evening's program will follow the appointment of Dr. Rantz of his own committee.

The committee heard reports on the progress of Scouting in the various troops of the county and Chairman Henderson made plans for the annual election of officers at the January meeting by appointing a nominating committee including Bron Smith, Sid Price and V. E. Allen to report at that time.

Following the meeting, the members of the district committee were guests of the American Legion Auxiliary for refreshments served in the main hall. Chairman Henderson conveying the appreciation of the committee in a short talk.

"SNOWSHOE" THOMPSON'S SERVICE IS THEME OF INSURANCE "AD"

Secretary Wallace M. Ripley, of the Chamber of Commerce, has received from Ted C. Atwood, at Sacramento, an advance proof sheet of a full page advertisement in The Saturday Evening Post for December 28th by the Travelers Insurance Company.

The theme of the advertisement, which is appropriately illustrated, is the service of "Snowshoe" Thompson, who in pioneer days carried the mail on skis between Placerville and Carson City.

Winter sports fans of the county who have adopted "Snowshoe" Thompson as their "patron saint" are especially delighted with the prominence given winter sports in the county, and the publicity which will result for the region generally through use of the advertisement by the Travelers Insurance Company.

Secretary Ripley, who confessed a business association with the insurance company in earlier years, said he will make it a point to write officers of the company expressing the community's interest in the advertisement, and an appreciation for the publicity given this section.

CONTINUING BRITISH SUCCESS IN AFRICA MAY RESULT IN FRENCH COLONIALS SWINGING ACTIVELY INTO WAR AGAINST ITALY

By J. W. T. MASON

United Press War Expert

British troops operating on the Libyan side of the Egyptian border are seeking to consolidate their positions in enemy territory by driving against the Port of Bardia, about 10 miles within the Libyan coast line. With the fall of that stronghold, British warships will have more favorable opportunities to cooperate in strengthening the new front.

Whether the British offensive will seek immediately to press farther into Libya should depend largely on the Italian morale, and the facilities for establishing new British supply bases. The main British depot is at Mersa Matruh, about 150 miles inside the Egyptian desert, terminus of the railway running eastward to Egypt, Cairo and Suez.

To continue major operations into Libya will require new advanced bases in the vicinity of the frontier. The problem of transport, however, has been modified by the capture of Sollum and will be further simplified if Bardia passes into British hands.

These coastal positions permit supplies to be landed from ships, bringing stores and reinforcements from Alexandria. Such an operation would be easier than organizing the desert transport; but success would depend on the number of vessels the British have been able to divert for Mediterranean use.

If the requirements of Atlantic shipping have compelled curtailment of the British mercantile fleet in the Mediterranean more time will be required for organizing further pressure against Marshal Graziani. The British, however, apparently have captured great quantities of Italian supplies, and these may be used for supporting to some extent any immediate advance which an opening in the Italian lines may invite.

The next major objective for a continued British offensive, after Bardia, should be the Mediterranean port of Tobruk, about 75 miles west of Bardia. If Tobruk were to fall, the succeeding objective would be the port of Bomba, 50 miles farther west.

Operations against these two coastal strongholds would be assisted by British naval bombardments. The distance to be traveled by the land forces is not extensive for the mechanized units, since the roadway within Libya presumably has been strengthened by the Italians for their use.

If the Italians were driven out of Tobruk and Bomba, their plight no doubt, would become precarious. Their main base of Benkhazi, about 175 miles farther west would have to be defended at all cost. Its loss would spell complete disaster.

But, in defending Benkhazi, the Italians would be fighting with their backs to the Mediterranean. Their only other way of retreat would be southward, into the desert regions and also into Tripolitania, the western province of Libya, bordering the French colony of Tunis.

The nearer the British are able to press the fighting toward French territory, the more disquietude must develop among the Axis leaders concerning the eventual position of the French north African colonists. Continued defeat of the Italians in Libya should have more influence than any other possible operation at this time to stimulate a renewal of the belligerent spirit among French Africans.

They know one of Italy's war objectives is to acquire a large part of French North Africa and the territory would be lost if the Axis should win the war. The British African offensive should give hope to the French of survival in Africa. Thus, if the Italians are wholly overwhelmed in Libya, French colonial participation in the war might well be brought nearer.
